Buffalo Ranch to donate breedings to NYCHA and becomes corporate sponsor

(Fort Worth, TX) – The National Cutting Horse Association announces that S. David Plummer’s Buffalo Ranch, located in both Utah and Texas will be a new corporate partner. S. David Plummer’s Buffalo Ranch is also helping the NYCHA by lots and lots—Lots of Acres, that is. For the 2007 and 2008 breeding seasons, Buffalo Ranch has agreed to donate 100 percent of Lots Of Acres’ breeding fees to the NYCHA scholarship fund. All breeding fees from outside mares will be earmarked for youth scholarships, with a minimum guaranteed donation of $50,000 per year.

“We are extremely excited to have Buffalo Ranch’s support of the youth scholarship program,” said NCHA Youth Coordinator Danette McGuire. “Their generous donation will enable us to help even more youth members as they enter college and continue their educations.”

Buffalo Ranch is home to the World’s Finest Bloodlines. Their Champion Stallions are backed by all industry incentives, the most rewarding bonus program available and are backed by the Industry’s best broodmare band

Lots Of Acres is standing the 2007 season at Don Ham Quarter Horses in Whitesboro, Texas. The Bob Acre Doc son was a finalist at the 2002 NCHA Open Futurity, and has lifetime earnings of $57,269. His first foals arrived in 2006. History to be written, Records to be broken, Money to be made; Be A Part Of History, with Buffalo Ranch. Visit us today www.sdpbuffaloranch.com

The National Cutting Horse Association is made up of 17,000 members across the United States with a wide range of backgrounds. The sport of cutting has roots in Western ranching traditions, where good horses were a necessity for everyday ranch work and cattle handling.
