Ken Mock, aboard Play Too Much, set the mark with 216 points, as the first rider in yesterday's 10-horse Classic Challenge John Deere Open Finals.

In the end, Play Too Much, owned by Jerry White, Weatherford, TX, held her ground as reserve champion, but it was Billy Bob Moore and Spotlights On Pepto that won the day with 219 points.

"I give all of my credit to Ronnie Rice, every bit of it," said Moore, referring to the NCHA Hall of Fame rider, following his win. "All the bad stuff you saw me do, I taught myself. All the good stuff, Ronnie taught me."

Moore and Spotlights On Pepto, by Peptoboonsmal, missed the cut-off to the Classic Challenge by half a-point and qualified for the Wild Card, where they scored 214 points.

"My horse has a lot of try," said Moore, who trained the 5-year-old stallion and shows him for Kevin and Georgia Allen, Lexington, TX. "He covers up a lot of my mistakes. I was very pleased. He's really strong and reads cattle really good."

Chartier placed third with 215.5 points on Cats Glamour Girl, by High Brow Cat; Casey Morris and Bodee Jazz, by Bodee Boonsmal, finished fourth with 213 points.

Moore, a third generation rancher from Buffalo, TX, has been training horses since he was 15, and has concentrated on cutting horses since 1998.

The Allens purchased Spotlights On Pepto as a 2-year-old and sent him to Moore. "When he came, he could have walked through a plank fence," said Moore. "He was a long-legged, two-year colt."

"Now he's really strong and never struggles around," he added. "And he reads cattle really good, has a lot of try, and he covers up a lot of my mistakes."

Moore, who stands 6' 4", thinks Spotlights On Pepto is at least 15 hands, maybe 15.1, and will top out at 1200 pounds.

"He's got a character about him," said Moore of Spotlights On Pepto. "He has a unique personality. He kind of aggravates you a bit and buddies up. But he just wants attention."

Moore rode Spotlights On Pepto as reserve champion of the $3,000 Novice at the Houston Livestock and Rodeo, and won the NCHA Day show at Athens, TX with 77 points.

Hall of Fame rider John Carter put Moore on his first cutting horse; Carter's son, Roy, was also a contender in the John Deere Finals.

"Roy's backed me in everything I've done," said Moore. "I promise, he was more tickled for me than if he would have won."
