Bubba Matlock and Desires Little Rex, owned by Jerry and Vickie Durant, won the second go-round of Open competition with 220 points.

NCHA Super Stakes co-champion Playin N Fancy Smart was working overtime last night, but the late hour didn't affect her performance. The Smart Little Lena daughter, ridden by Kory Pounds, duplicated her first go-round score of 218 to top the cumulative with 436 points. Scores of 427 advance to Saturday's Semi-Finals round.

"She's real cowy and real quick," said Pounds of Playin N Fancy Smart, who was also an NCHA Futurity Open finalist (8th), as well as a Super Stakes Non-Pro finalist (11th) with her owner and breeder, Glade Knight, who showed her dam, Playin N Fancy Peppy, as a major event finalist.

Desires Little Rex, owned by Jerry and Vickie Durant of Weatherford, won the second go-round with 220 points under Bubba Matlock.

"I hate being first in this pen," admitted Matlock, referring to

Left to right: Kory Pounds earned the high cumulative of 436 in the Open go-rounds on Playin N Fancy Smart, for Glade Knight; Russell Harrison and Peptos Lil Fletch, owned by Robert Peacock, had the second-highest average of 435.5; Matt Budge and Chulas Merada ranked second in the second go-round with 219 (434.5 total) for Jackpot Ranch.

Desires Little Rex's draw as the first to work in the second set. "But my horse was good and I had some really good help."

Desires Little Rex barely qualified for the second go-round with a 210-point first round score.

"I was really fortunate to get a chance to come back," said Matlock. "I cut a bad cow on him in the first go-round and he wasn't as good as he can be."

The Smart Little Lena son had been recuperating since the Tunica Futurity, in February, from a fracture in his front ankle.

"This is the first time I've shown him since Tunica," Matlock noted. "He's coming back around and I'm really pleased with him."

Chulas Merada, ridden by Matt Budge for Jackpot Ranch, Weatherford, TX, marked 219 points yesterday, the second-highest score from the second go-round.

"I made the finals of the Abilene Spectacular on her, but that's really all the good I've done on her," said Budge. Jackpot Ranch owner Terry Green rode the Chula Dual daughter to place 10th in the NCHA Amateur Futurity.

Correction: The breeders of Some Kinda Sweetie, by Sweet Lil Pepto out of Some Kinda Memories, are Carl and Laurel Shrontz, instead of Meredith McCullar's 4M Ranch, as reported in Monday's Daily Chatter.
