AN OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE NATIONAL CUTTING HORSE ASSOCIATION

It's One Time Pepto and Rockin By Choice in Open Paula Wood wins Non-Pro title

Jeffrey Matthews, owner, and Matt Gaines, rider, with NCHA Super Stakes champion One Time Pepto, by Peptoboonsmal.

Buffalo Bug

The Buffalo Bug broadcast, sponsored by Buffalo Ranch, with commentary by Tim Smith (above) and Tom Holt, was a big hit at the NCHA Super Stakes.

One Time Pepto, who set an all-time record when he sold to Jeffrey Matthews for $380,000 at the 2002 NCHA Futurity Sales, captured his first championship title with a 224-point win in the NCHA Super Stakes under Matt Gaines.

Rockin By Choice, ridden by Paula Hansma for Elizabeth Queen, was just one-half point out with 223.5 for the reserve championship.

"Paul had a darn good run," said Gaines. "I thought he might have had me. It was close."

Gaines drew third to work in the second bunch, followed by Hansma, who was fourth.

"My first cow wasn't very good," said Gaines. "It didn't test my horse very good. But my second cow was tough and that's what we needed."

"This horse is so smart and stops so hard and gets around so good, you need a cow to show him off."

Gaines was a leader on the Peptoboonsmal son throughout the go-rounds and split the aggregate high score of 440 points with Dualin Boon, ridden by Ronnie Rice, and NCHA Futurity champion Spots Hot, under Wesley Galyean.

Quintan Blue, by Mecom Blue, ridden by Roger Wagner for Jim Vangilder, won the Semi-Finals handily with 225 points, but was limited by the cattle to 217.5 points in the Finals. Spots Hot fell victim to his second cow in the Semi-Finals, as well.

Kobie Wood had set a target in the first bunch of the Open Finals with 220 points on Cowcattin, by Cattin, owned by Cotton and Davis, Kaufman, Texas. But it was One Time Pepto who upped the ante and gave the remaining competitors a target.

"He's really a phenomenal horse," said Gaines, who won the 2001 Open Super Stakes with the late Sunettes Dually. "It just feels good to get him shown so people can see what he is."

One Time Pepto earned $100,000 as the Super Stakes champion, plus $30,000 as a Super Stallions Incentive Fund sired entry. Dave and Clare Capps, Weatherford, Texas received a $25,000 Super Stallions Incentive Fund award as owners of One Time Pepto's dam, One Time Soon, by Smart Little Lena.

The Capps' were also breeders of third-placed Cowcattin, sired by Cattin out of Smokee Uno. Uno Princess, winner of the 1968 NCHA Futurity under James Kenney, is the second dam of both One Time Pepto and Cowcattin.

Wood Cashes in

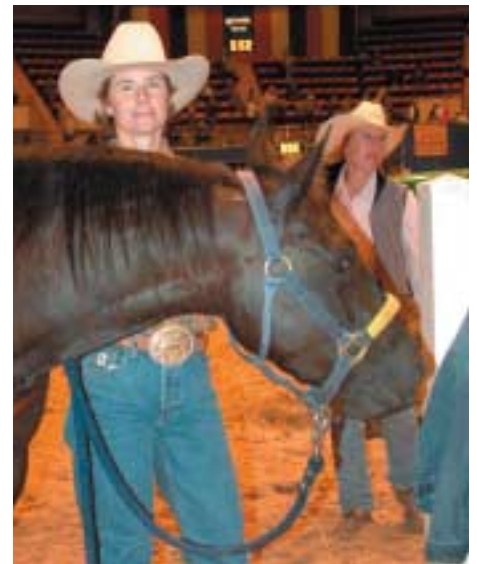

Riding Chita Cash Cat, by High Brow Cat, Paula Wood came late in the second bunch of cattle to score 219 points and claim the Non-Pro championship. Sandy Bonelli, on Midnight Rondeevous, by Smart Little Rondee, scored 217.5 points as the last rider in the Finals and the reserve champion.

"The cattle made me nervous," Wood, a former NCHA non-pro world champion admitted. "Everybody had good horses and had gone out.

"Kobie said, we've got three cows and you'd better cut them. So I did."

Kobie is Paula's husband, a five-times NCHA Open World Champion. Two of his world titles came aboard Cash Quixote Rio, the dam's sire of Chita Cash Cat.

"Cash Quixote Rio puts so much smarts into those broodmares," said Paula, who rode Chita Cash Cat's dam, Chita Cash, to win the 1997 NCHA Non-Pro Derby.

Sandy Bonelli was reserve Non-Pro champion on Midnight Rondeevous, by Smart Little Rondee, with 217.5, and split 10/11 on Sues Bar Cat.

Having drawn dead last, after scoring 206 on her "favorite" mount Sues Barn Cat, Sandy Bonelli just wanted to hold three cows.

"I didn't worry about winning," she said. "Winning takes care of itself. Paula's horse was so good and I am so happy for her.

"Those cows were really, really tough. I love this little horse. She's a show horse."
